BONNIE CAMPAGNUOLO

DIRECTOR, RESORTS & PRODUCT MARKETING

Bonnie Campagnuolo was appointed Director - Resorts & Product Marketing for Hilton Hotels & Resorts in June 2010. Campagnuolo oversees marketing and brand standards for Hilton Resorts, a collection of more than 75 iconic properties, considered among the best within the Hilton Hotels & Resorts portfolio, each offering a locally-inspired upscale resort experience with engaged service in the most sought-after destinations around the world. Whether it's Bora Bora's blue lagoons or a Middle Eastern desert paradise, Campagnuolo aims to define the Hilton Resorts experience worldwide and ensure leisure travelers experience the universal quality and service that connect all resorts in the portfolio.

Prior to joining Hilton Hotels & Resorts, Campagnuolo was the Vice President of Customer Communications for Marriott Vacation Club International where she was responsible for marketing materials and brand standard development for all of the company's brands and products. Campagnuolo also worked for Walt Disney Parks and Resorts as an Account Director overseeing Theme Parks and Tourist, International and Vacation Planning initiatives. During her seven years at Disney, she planned and executed advertising and direct marketing activities for various divisions and supervised the creative development of the first Walt Disney World vacation planning DVD.

Campagnuolo has a Master of Business Administration from the University of Central Florida and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from Boston College. When she is not traveling the globe for Hilton Resorts, she lives in Northern Virginia and spends her free time planning family get-aways with her husband and two children. Chances are, right now she has three folders on her desk brimming with tips and details for upcoming trips.

Q & A

What is your favorite Hilton restaurant or room service menu item?

Kamuela Provision Company at Hilton Waikoloa Village - with great fresh fish and amazing sunset views, it really is paradise.

If you could work in any on-property Team Member position, which would it be?

I'd be a bartender so I could listen to stories about guests' amazing vacations and hear about the qualities of their experience that make them wish they could stay forever. I'd also like to work as an activity director for one of our kids programs like Coyote Camp at Pointe Hilton Squaw Peak Resort in Arizona because I love spending time with kids.

Favorite leisure getaway?

Anywhere warm. When I lived in Florida, Longboat Key was our quiet place for family beach time. But if I'm with my husband or having a girl's weekend, a spa, good food and wine are the definition of vacation.

Favorite Hilton amenity?

I love lazy river pools. It reminds me that it's not about where you're going - it's the journey and the people with you that make it fun and memorable every time.

Why do you have the best job in the world?

I get to help people relax and step away from the daily grind, if only for a few minutes as they think about their next vacation. And when they do take a vacation, they get to reconnect with loved ones, take time for themselves and enjoy the little moments. Not to mention the fact that I've "scouted" possible vacation spots for my family and seen amazing places around the world.
